Andrew Kuan is former Group Chief Financial Officer of JTC, a multi-billion real estate and infrastructure corporation. He oversaw the Group's broad-ranging financial management, corporate finance, investments and corporate governance. He also has worked in top financial positions with prominent multi-national corporations like Betz, Gould Medical and Bausch & Lomb.

Andrew has been a professional adviser to the President of a high-tech MNC and advised the Chairman of a promising local enterprise.

He has served as a member of the editorial board of advisers of CFO-Asia at The Economist Group as well as a resource panel member of the Government Parliamentary Committee for Finance and Trade & Industry for the term of 1997/98. He was also a member of Statutory Boards Accounting Standards Review Committee, Ministry of Finance in 2003, contributing his years of experience to the fine-tuning of government policies.

Andrew has managed to juggle his demanding career commitments with balanced family life and active community involvement. He has served nine years as a Town Councillor and Chairman of its Finance Committee where he oversaw the financial management and investments of two town councils.

With a keen interest to share his passion and experience in ABM, EVA, BSC and financial management, he has lectured at IBM, Yokogawa, The RMIT University-SIM's Bachelor of Business programme, The University of Wales – Master of Science (Health Care) programme, and for the Dentistry Faculty at the National University of Singapore in the General Practice Management Course.
